

Hi everyone :)

Thanks for reading!

I've started using the Korean raws instead of the Japanese ones.

I feel like it's easier to figure out what to read first?

So from now on, everything's read left to right!

I'm still translating from Japanese, though, so don't expect the SP's and tiny convos in Korean to have the same meaning as my words...

I wonder if ppl will even read what I'm putting up here.

Ah

Mieri!
